

SOFTWARE DEVELOPER—ANDROID

Vertifi Software delivers state-of-the-art products and services to the financial services industry, and particularly the credit union community, drawing on approximately forty years of experience as part of the EasCorp (Eastern Corporate Federal Credit Union) family. Vertifi was first to offer Remote Deposit Capture solutions commercially in the United States and remains today innovators of proprietary and industry-leading digital banking and payments solutions.

We are looking for an experienced Android developer to join our team. While Android is our immediate priority, this role will span platforms over time, so we are looking for someone who is adaptable and curious, not just a specialist in one area. You will be involved across the full development lifecycle: from gathering requirements through development, testing, deployment, and ongoing support.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

- Design, develop, test, and deploy Android applications, with opportunity to work across iOS and Windows as well
- Collaborate with a small team across the full development lifecycle
- Enhance and maintain existing applications across our product suite
- Contribute to architecture and code quality discussions

POSITION REQUIREMENTS

- 3+ years of professional software development experience
- Professional Android development experience with shipped consumer-facing apps or SDKs in production
- Strong object-oriented programming fundamentals
- Comfortable picking up new programming languages and platforms as the work demands
- Strong problem-solving skills and clear communication
- Bachelor's degree in computer science or related field, or equivalent professional experience
- Must have unrestricted authorization to work in the U.S.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE WILL ALSO HAVE

- Experience with iOS development
- Familiarity with one or more of our core languages: Swift, Kotlin, or C#
- Familiarity with web technologies (HTML, JavaScript)

WHAT WE OFFER

This is a full-time, hybrid position (requiring 3 days in the office per week) with an annual salary starting at $90,000.00, commensurate with experience. Vertifi offers a competitive salary and benefits program, including medical, dental, LTD, 401K with employer match, 11 paid holidays, as well as sick and vacation days. A cafeteria and fitness center are located on site. Apply now!
